

Nominjin is a multi-cultural singer, hit songwriter (ASCAP member), actress, master of ceremonies and motivational public speaker. She has performed in more than 15 countries as a solo singer in front of audiences of up to 80,000 people. She speaks 4 languages and sings in 15 languages including English, Chinese, Russian, Hindi and Korean.<sup>[1]</sup> As a songwriter, she has penned more than 100 songs.

Nominjin launched her career in 2003 at age 14 after studying under vocal coach Roger Love.<sup>[1]</sup> She has performed as a soloist in Russia, the United States, the United Kingdom, Turkey, India, the Caribbean, Singapore, South Korea, France, Mexico, Japan, Taiwan, and Thailand<sup>[2][3]</sup>. Significant performances have included a 50,000 person peace festival at the Ajinomoto Stadium in Tokyo, Japan, co-hosting and featured singer for an 80,000 person concert in Ulaanbaatar Mongolia, co-hosting a MTV live show. She currently lives in West Hollywood, USA.

In addition to more than a dozen #1 hits in her native country of Mongolia, Nominjin's other releases include being featured on John Lennon's tribute album Peace, Love & Truth.<sup>[4]</sup> In 2007, Nominjin's version of "Take Me to Your Heart" (by Jackie Cheung) was included on the EMI album "Love: Best of Ten Years" alongside multi-platinum selling artists such as Christina Aguilera, Toni Braxton, Norah Jones and Ricky Martin. Mr. Tin's album "A Drop That Contained The Sea" which Nominjin was a part of with her original Mongolian poem "Tsas Narand Uyarna", debuted at #1 on Billboard Classical charts in May, 2014.<sup>[8]</sup>

Nominjin has been a featured soloist with two-time Grammy-winning composer Christopher Tin at Carnegie Hall's Stern Auditorium and Lincoln Center's David Geffen Hall as a soloist in 5 languages (Mongolian, Japanese, Chinese, Persian, and Sanskrit). The New York concert included a 600-person choir and a 300 person orchestra.<sup>[5]</sup> New York concert reviewers<sup>[6]</sup> praised Nominjin for her soulful voice and passionate performance.<sup>[7]</sup>

In the summer of 2017 Nominjin was a headline performer at the Gala Concert of the 70th Anniversary of the Llangollen International Musical Eistedfodd. Once again invited by Christopher Tin, Nominjin performed with the national Welsh National Opera Orchestra and a mass choir made up of singers from Wales, South Africa, Taiwan, and the United States<sup>[11]</sup>. The concert was filmed and subsequently broadcast on Welsh television station S4C and the BBC<sup>[12]</sup>.

Other ventures

Actress & Motivational Speaker

Nominjin was the lead actress of the play "Heart Piece" by Rubén Polendo, Theater Mitu of New York in December 2012.

Nominjin is as an inspiring youth role-model, having led an intoxicant free life-style her entire life. Nominjin's most recent accomplishments include working as the official English language sports caster, English language script writer, host and performer for both the opening and closing ceremonies of FILA World Cup 2013.

Goodwill Envoy

On May 23 of 2015, Nominjin was appointed as a Goodwill Envoy for Public Diplomacy by Yun Byung-se, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Republic of Korea, for the term of two years.

She was twice voted as a runner-up to PETA's sexiest vegetarian celebrities and has done numerous campaigns promoting compassionate lifestyle. This has included an international pro-vegetarian and anti-fur ad campaign by PETA<sup>[13]</sup>

Other public diplomacy activities have included accompanying the President of Mongolia's Chief of Staff and the Minister of Culture, Sport and Tourism at the United Nation's headquarter building. During said event, Nominjin developed the script and hosted a ceremony awarding several American citizens with the highest Presidential award given to foreign nationals.

Social-Entrepreneur

Since launching her music career at age 13, Nominjin has been a pioneer in promoting a healthy lifestyle in her home country. She is a yoga/meditation practitioner and a vegan since a very young age.

At the age of 17, Nominjin established Mongolia's premiere and number one non-profit vegan restaurant Luna Blanca which consistently ranks as one of the top five restaurants in all of Mongolia (Trip Advisor, Lonely Planet, Google Reviews, etc.)

As a linguist, Nominjin, together with her family, launched AliaMori.com. This site is Mongolia's only online learning platform and provides accessible and affordable services to people of all economic backgrounds.

Languages

Fluent speaker: English, Mongolian

Intermediate: Russian, Malayalam

Basic: Chinese (with on-going intensive studies), Spanish, Hindi

Singing languages: English, Russian, Malayalam, Chinese, Spanish, Hindi, French, Hebrew, Farsi, Sanskrit, Greek, Korean, Japanese, Vietnamese, Mongolian

Updated: Jan.2018